MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM

[REDACTED]
Deputy to the DCI for the
Intelligence Community

STAT

SUBJECT : Commendation

1. I want to convey my appreciation for the outstanding job that [REDACTED] (OSR) did for us while temporarily assigned to the Intelligence Community Staff from 16 August to 1 October 1976, in connection with our first semiannual review of intelligence for the National Security Council.

2. [REDACTED] was an important member of the team responsible for developing the Soviet/East European portion of our review. He assisted in conducting some thirty-seven separate interviews on a variety of intelligence support matters with high-ranking officials throughout the Washington user-producer community; contributed materially to the drafting of our report's section dealing with the quality and timeliness of intelligence reporting on the USSR and East Europe; completed several additional analytical tasks; and was of great assistance throughout his assignment here in accomplishing a number of important liaison functions with members of the Central Intelligence Agency concerned with our project.

3. [REDACTED] performed all his tasks with diligence, efficiency, and professional expertise. It was a pleasure to have had him aboard. Thank you again for making available to us such a capable officer.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM :

[redacted]
Deputy to the DCI for the
Intelligence Community

SUBJECT : Commendation

1. I want to convey my appreciation for the outstanding job that [redacted] (OPR) did for us while temporarily assigned to the Intelligence Community Staff from 16 August to 1 October 1976, in connection with our first semiannual review of intelligence for the National Security Council.

2. [redacted] was an important member of the task force team responsible for preparing the East Asia portion of our review. His extensive background of Chinese affairs aided immeasurably in conducting some twenty-five interviews with high-ranking users on a variety of intelligence matters. Based on these interviews, as well as his own knowledge of intelligence reporting on China, [redacted] contributed significantly to the development of the East Asia section addressing the timeliness and quality of intelligence reporting; provided useful written comments on systemic Intelligence Community problems; and suggested ways to improve our approach to future NSC reviews of intelligence reporting.

3. [redacted] performed all his tasks with diligence, efficiency, and professional expertise. It was a pleasure to have had him aboard. Thank you again for making available to us such a capable officer.
